GULPH MILLS WILL OPEN ITS NEW 18-HOLE COURSE TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Latest Links Creation of Donald Ross Will Be Thrown Open to Members and Promises to Rank Among Best Courses in Country

By WILLIAM H. EVANS

THE new Gulph Mills Golf Club, which will be thrown open for play tomorrow, Ross never built a poor or indifferent course and he has expressed himself on a number of occasions as regarding this as one of the best links he has ever constructed. Weston B. Hibbs, secretary and treasurer of the club, has had charge of the construction and after two years of hard work the new eighteen-hole course is ready for play. The club is limited to 150 members and their families, but the present membership has been cut in half, as those men are now in France. As a result of this condition the board of directors has decided to open the course on a war basis. The clubhouse will not be built until after the war and part of the farmhouse has been set aside for temporary club quarters, with shower bath and a locker-room and other facilities of a clubhouse.

No Charge for Visitors

There will be no charge for visitors this season and members will have the privilege of inviting their friends to play over the course. Mr. Hibbs has cards for a period of two weeks. The members of the club believe that the more the course is played over the better it will be its condition, and thanks to the war many Philadelphians will have the privilege of playing over the new course, which promises to rank among the very best courses in the country.

The club can be reached by the Philadelphia and Western line from the Sixty-ninth street terminal to Gulph Mills station, cars running every twenty minutes. The club automobile will meet the cars leaving the terminal at 12:40 and 1 o'clock on Saturdays. The nearest station on the Pennsylvania is Radnor. Caddies are at $1.00 an hour. James O'Malley is the caddy master. Convenient by Motor

Gulph Mills is located at the corner of Swedeland and King of Prussia roads, the latter being a continuation of Montgomery avenue, and to reach it by motor take the King of Prussia road to the Bird-in-Hand Tavern, then turn right at the first road, the road ending at the course.

A few years ago, when it was thought for a while that St. David's was going to lose its course, an option was taken on the present Gulph Mills, but, as matters were adjusted, the option was not exercised. St. David's, Mr. Hibbs took over the option, and the new club is the result. The property is about 160 acres in extent and lies in Upper Merion township. In the beautiful Chester Valley, one of the most picturesque scenic sections of the State.

NOTES OF THE AMATEURS

THE Wallace Boys' Club has signed two players who have had experience in the minor leagues. Ralph McDonald, formerly a member of the Erie team, of the Pennsylvania State League, and Morris Rich, who was a member of the pitching staff for a team in the Three I League, are the two players who are expected to bolster the Wallace aggregation.

The team has July 4 (p. m.), 6, 20 and dates during the months of August and September open and would like to hear from first-class teams having home grounds and offering a suitable guarantee. The club would like to hear from such teams as Cape May, Ocean City, Palmyra, McAndrews and Forbes or any other teams of that class. All communications should be addressed to Mr. Gottlieb, manager, 1305 Columbia avenue.

New Yorkers Defeat Motor Club Players at Wykagyl

WIN IN FOURSOME

New York, June 28.

The golfers of the New York Motor Club evened accounts when they defeated the members of the Philadelphia Motor Club in a return series of matches over the Wykagyl Country Club course in Westchester, yesterday. The two organizations met last week in Philadelphia, with the Gotham players returning home the losers. Yesterday the local auto men won eleven of the fifteen matches.

In the foursome play A. W. La Roche and L. S. Bowers, representing the Quakers, beat Percy Barton and J. M. Clark, of New York, after four extra holes. The New York pair got into trouble after driving off the tee and never recovered. Another close Philadelphia victory in the foursome was scored by W. R. Walton and E. B. Maucher, when they beat C. E. T. Schaps and W. R. Chandler, the New York representatives, by one up.

Chandler's good work on the first hole in the foursome play gave him the lead. The match was a close one, with the Philadelphia pair after they had flushed a square at the end of the eighteenth hole. Walton had to howl to his rival when he became bunkered and failed to experience any better luck in driving out of the rut.

The foursome consisted of fourteen matches, ten singles and four foursomes, the visitors getting two matches in each play.

Dix to Meet Naval Reserve

The game the enlisted men stationed in this vicinity have been patiently awaiting will be played at the Country Club for Golfers, at Rockledge, Montclair, N. J., on Sunday afternoon. The team, known as the Naval Reserve, will meet Camp Dix, which has been on and off several times.

Golf for Engineers

Greenwich, Conn., June 28.—Ten members of the Greenwich Engineers' Club enjoyed a golf tournament at Rockledge, Montclair, N. J., yesterday. D. F. Street, a member of the local club, overcame the engineers at dinner. A. W. Ralston, a member of the local club, overcame the engineers at dinner.

Seranton Boxer in France

Seranton, Pa., June 28.—Chick Simler, former local light-weight, who went to France several months ago has flourished in several bouts here, according to advice received here and is now considered the champion of the United States naval forces abroad.

Ski Jumper Joins Aviators

Chicago, June 28.—One of the latest recruits to the great army of American aviators is Ragnar Ostved, a Norwegian ski jumper, who holds the record of 192 feet in his jumps, and is the longest jumper ever made on skis. He left here to report at a round about in the South.

JAP WINS WAY TO THE FINALS

Kashio to Meet Hall on Courts at Mountain Station N. J.

VICTOR PLAYS PELL

Mountain Station, N. J., June 28.

Japan will have an entry in the final round of the singles of the Middle States tennis championship. Seichiro Kashio, the hard hitting Little Oriental, representing the West Side Lawn Tennis Club, disposed of the veteran G. A. L. Dionne, in the easiest sort of style, in straight sets yesterday. Dionne, who is usually a very handsome player because of his peculiar strategy and remarkable steadiness, could win only one game in each set.

Walter Merrill Hall, the Hamilton Grange player, who once held the championship, won his way into the final at the expense of Lindsay Dunham, but he had to go an extra set to do it. He lost the second set, but finished in fast form, and did not lose a game in the deciding one. His long court shots caught Dunham off his balance most of the time, and he outgeneraled him by a big margin in the concluding set. Hall and Kashio will now fight it out to see who will meet Teddy Pell in the challenge round.

This is one of the few tournaments left in the country where the title holder is not obliged to play through. Kashio has been playing so well that he has a very good chance to win, as neither Pell nor Hall have been doing much work on the courts this season.

In the women's singles four went into the semifinal round. There were Miss Helen Pollak, Miss Natalie Browning, Miss Bessie Holden and Mrs. Stuart Green. There is a chance that Mrs. Green will be opposed by her sister, Miss Natalie Browning, in the final round. Every one of the matches was decided without resorting to an extra set. Miss Pollak's victory was probably the most impressive of all, for she defeated Mrs. E. V. Lynch, 6-3, 6-3. Mrs. Lynch has been playing remarkably good tennis this season, and at the Pelham tournament she was one of the surprises.

BOXING AT CAMP MILLS

10,000 Soldiers See Six Fast Bouts in Open-Air Arena Camp Mills, L. I., N. Y., June 28.—Six fast bouts were staged here in the 1400 soldiers, before a throng of 10,000 soldiers. It was the first open-air boxing carnival in the camp this season. The feature bout was that in which V. Ash and A. Brennan, both from the same company, participated. The men weighed in at 140 pounds. Referee Percy Smallwood, the former long-distance runner, at the end of the fourth round decided the event in a draw. Another carnival will be staged next week.

MACKS HOME TO MEET YANKS

Close Stay in Washington by Dropping Two Games in One Day

AT SHIBE PARK TODAY

The Athletics returned home last night from their swing around the American League circuit. They arrived directly from Washington, where they finished the series with the Senators by dropping two games. This afternoon the Mackmen open a four-game series with the New York Yankees, new league leaders in Ban Johnson's circuit. The Yankees are here today, tomorrow, Monday and Tuesday.

Mack will have trouble so long as he has to run along without pitchers of close merit. In losing yesterday's double-header, 8 to 6 and 3 to 2, the second game going ten frames, the Athletics failed to get one victory in the series. The Athletics have today close to the best pitcher in the league, Walter Johnson, with Walter Johnson sailing along at his best. It was no disgrace to be wallowed by Johnson as he looked yesterday.

"My team has been playing good enough baseball," said Connie this morning, "but we have been losing; these one-run defeats being disheartening, too. If we could get a few timely hits or if our pitchers wouldn't crack in the wrong place we would be far better off. I'll have to keep on looking, I guess."

Acosta Fine Fielder

The Mackmen have picked up a clever little outfielder in Merito Acosta, but it is problematical just how hard he will hit. In the field he is chain lightning and he boasts of a "whip" fully as good as that owned by Tillie Walker. As Jameson is also a fine thrower, the Mackmen have today close to the best pecking trio of gardeners in the business—certainly the best in the league. Tillie Walker came out being disheartened in the first game yesterday, polling three clean singles off Johnson. But he had nobody to keep him company, and in the second skinned him let George Burns do it. The former Tiger gobbled a double and two singles off Shaw and Ayers.

The Mackmen never had a look-in for the first game, but they made the home boys go ten innings before coping the second. Perry pitched spotty ball, now good and now bad. He chose to be had in the tenth inning, when he was hit by a line drive from Shannon, the shortstop making a great stop and throw just a bit too late. Schulte singled to right, but Morgan forced Milan at third on a hopper to Gardner. Lavan came up and smashed a smoking drive through Shannon's legs to the garden, bringing Schulte over with the winning tally.

Walker Surprises Fans

"Tillie" Walker, handicapped with a troublesome charleyhorse, surprised the fans by racing far and fast, and dragging down Pelechin's fly in the second game, while Merito Acosta bagged a foul fly from Foster's bat in the first game after rushing over to the pavilion. Eddie Foster acted cleverly when he strode to the stand and with his feet on the circus seats took Dugan's foul fly in the second game. Joe Judge proved himself the peer of Hal Chase at the latter's beat when he raced across the infield to the third-base foul line in the first game, picked up Acosta's hunt from right beneath Johnson's nose and got Walker at third base. That was the best fielding stunt seen in Washington this season.

Clifford N. Markle, who was reported yesterday by the War Department as being among the United States prisoners of war in Germany, was formerly a pitcher with the New York Yankees. He is being held by the Germans at Darmstadt.

Ray Powell, Walter Reitz and Joseph Kelly, outfielders with the Boston Braves, will join the naval reserve force at New York on July 1. The three players, who are in class 1 of the draft, went to New York recently and enlisted, and yesterday were ordered to report for duty within ten days.
